

NEW-GENERATION COMPANY PRESENTATION

Differentiate yourself from other recruiters and present yourself as the employer of choice

80% of candidates will turn down an offer if they do not identify with the employer. So, before applying, they try and find as much information as they can about their potential future employer: who am I going to work with? What is the corporate culture and what benefits does the company offer?

Our new company presentation lets you answer all these questions in one place.

Your benefits

- ✓ A clear layout which works on PCs and mobiles
- ✓ Present yourself as the employer of choice
- ✓ In keeping with the new design for your jobs
- ✓ Lots of opportunities for customisation
